The message that I'd like to share with you comes from Neale Donald Walsh, as I interpret him.

On this day of your life, (your name here), I believe God wants you to know that it sometimes looks like "one thing after the other," but really, it is Blessing After Blessing.

I know, I know...you may not experience it that way. But that's because you don't see it that way - yet. In this business of life, "What you see is what you get."

If you think you are looking at struggle, struggle is what you will experience. If you decide that you are looking at a gift, even if you can't see it clearly in this moment, a gift is what you will receive. Just wait. You'll see. I mean that literally. You will see.

Just a friendly reminder to be aware of our beliefs and expectations, and how they influence the world that we create for ourselves, and for all of us.

And having said that, remember that we are all doing the best that we can at any given time; so please, let there be no blame or recrimination, no fear or guilt.

'Love is the thing, you know'- so let's illuminate the world with our love.

Happy Equinox, whatever you do with the longest day of the year!

Blessings,
Jasmine

Symptoms of Inner Peace

Watch for signs of Peace. The hearts of a great many have already been exposed to it and it seems likely that we could find our society experiencing it in epidemic proportions.

Some signs and symptoms of Inner Peace are:

1. A tendency to think and act spontaneously rather than from fear-based experience 2. An unmistakable ability to enjoy each other. 3. Loss of interest in judging other people. 4. Loss of interest in judging self. 5. Loss of interest in interpreting the action of others. 6. Loss of interest in conflict. 7. Loss of ability to worry. (A very serious symptom) 8. Frequent, overwhelming episodes of appreciation. 9. Contented feelings of connectedness with others and nature. 10. Frequent attacks of smiling through the eyes from the heart. 11. Increasing tendency to let things happen rather than make them happen. 12. Increased susceptibility to Love extended by other as well as the uncontrollable urge to extend it. If you have all or even most of the above symptoms, please be advised that your condition may be too far advanced to turn back. If you are exposed to anyone exhibiting several of these symptoms, remain exposed at your own risk. This condition of Inner Peace is likely well into its infectious stage. Be forewarned.

JOURNEY CIRCLE

This circle will be at 10 am the third Tuesday of the month. The structure will ask only that people come on time and respect each other. This group will meet at the church but travel with our minds to healing places. Dan Conley will facilitate the circle.

HEALING CIRCLES

This circle will be there for anyone who needs the support of a circle to move through a difficult time. It could be a loss, a conflict, a health problem or anything that a circle could help. This circle will be set up for the person who requests it. It will be open only for the members that this person needs to be in the circle. To develop this, contact Dan Conley at 218-384-3639.

Dan will help plan and facilitate this circle with you.

Solstice Drumming to be held at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, June 18th at Wisconsin Point, facilitated by Terry White. Directions to the drumming site: take Highway 2/53 just outside Superior. Turn left on Moccasin Mike Road at the Caterpillar Dealership. Follow the road towards the lake approximately 1.5 - 2 miles. Take the first and ONLY left turn on the paved road towards Lake Superior (if you come to a gravel road, you missed the turn). Park in the first parking area on the right side of the road. After parking, walk over a small dune or berm and you are there. Drumming will be held at the church in case of rain.

June Movie

“Without vision, the people perish....with vision we flourish.”

Hidden beneath the breakdowns of modern society are breakthroughs that herald a radically new human condition. While most of these breakthroughs are small, yet vital incremental changes, others are clearly significant new capacities that can fundamentally change our lives forever.

VISIONS touches the ‘transcendent yearnings’ of life itself within us; life that when it hits a limit to its own growth either goes extinct or innovates and transforms itself as it repeatedly has done during our great 14 billion year tradition. In VISIONS, futurist Barbara Marx Hubbard will bring together some of the greatest minds of our time to reveal the potential for the next stage of human evolution, the next turn on the spiral of ‘Our Story’. VISIONS will take us across the ‘evolutionary gap’ from here -- a warring, polluting, over-populating species on the brink of self destruction, to there, -- a co creative, universal humanity at the dawn of the first Universal Age of Conscious Evolution, a future filled with infinite possibilities.
